

Project/Assignment Decisions

- I was inspired through the Jenga games to create a canvas with two colours on either side, as well as the text in the middle, which directly references the idea of balance.
- The text references patience as well, both of which are important in a game of Jenga.
- I chose yellow and blue for the background colours, simply because I liked them.

GenAI Documentation

- No GenAI was used in this assignment.